

Please do not interfere with the telephone privacy of the people of the state of Indiana. We are enjoying our evenings free of unwanted interruptions from telemarketers. I especially do not want to hear from my bank, Wells Fargo (a member of the CBA), regarding products I am not interested in. Please adopt Indiana's more restrictive policies for the entire country.